Dormant Account Charges

When there has been no customer activity on your account for 24 months, your account becomes dormant.

A notice of dormancy will be mailed to the customer's last known address. Notices are only sent after the 2nd and 5th year the account has been dormant.

Accounts where there have been no transactions or acknowledgements by the customer for a period of 10 years will be transferred to the Bank of Canada as required by the Bank Act.

- 2 years dormant charges: $20.00 per annum - for each of years 3-5 inclusive.
- 5 years dormant charges: $30.00 per annum - for each of years 6-10 inclusive.

Interest Calculation for Transfers and Bill Payments

Interest on all Business chequing and savings accounts is calculated on the daily closing balance and paid monthly. If any Bill Payment or Transfer to an external linked account or Transfer by way of file upload is initiated by the customer on a day that is not a regular business day (including a holiday), then the transaction will be processed on the next business day. In the case of such type of debits from an account, the date of initiation of the transaction by the customer and not the next business day will be the effective date for purposes of interest calculation.

Hold Funds Policy

When you deposit a cheque into your account, either through an ICICI Bank ABM, by mail or at one of our branches, the entire amount may be "Held".

When you deposit a cheque or cash into your account through any of THE EXCHANGE® Network of ABMs, the entire amount may be "Held".

The credit for such deposit may not be given until we have verified its authenticity and details. You will not have access to these funds until the hold period expires.

A Hold may be placed on your account for the total amount of the deposit as follows:

- A cheque deposited either through an ICICI Bank ABM, by mail or in person drawn on ICICI Bank within Canada will not be subject to a hold period.
- A cheque or other instrument deposited either through an ICICI Bank ABM, by mail or in person drawn on another financial institution within Canada will be subject to a maximum five-business day hold period excluding the day of deposit; with the exception that,
 - subject to certain terms and conditions set out in the Access to Funds Regulations, where such cheques or other instruments are drawn in Canadian dollars on a financial institution within Canada and for $1,500 or less, the cheque will be subject to a maximum four business day hold period, excluding the day of deposit, if it is deposited in person with an employee at one of our branches;
 - and a maximum 5 business day hold period, excluding the day of deposit, if it is deposited in any other manner.
- Bank drafts or certified cheques deposited by mail or at an ICICI Bank ABM or in person drawn on another Canadian financial institution within Canada will not be subject to a hold period so long as ICICI Bank Canada receives confirmation of funds from the other financial institution.

- In respect of all cheque and other instrument deposits, a cheque or other instrument deposited either through an ICICI Bank ABM, by mail or in person on Saturday, Sunday or any banking holidays will be deemed to have been deposited on the next business day.
- Cash deposited through an ICICI Bank ABM will not be subject to a hold period.
- A cheque or other instrument or cash deposited through any of THE EXCHANGE® Network of ABMs (cheque or other instrument drawn either on ICICI Bank Canada or another financial institution within Canada) will be subject to a maximum five-business day hold period.
- A cheque deposited by mail or in person drawn on a financial institution outside Canada will be subject to a maximum forty-day hold period.
- Electronic transfer of funds from any other financial institution, anywhere in Canada and credited to your account with ICICI Bank Canada will be subject to a maximum five-business day hold period.

A cheque may be returned if it is materially altered, whether apparent or not, up to a period of 90 days from the date the paying bank receives the cheque as per Canadian Payment Association rules.

Notice of Changes to Fees and Charges Listed in this Disclosure Statement

You will be informed of any increase to fees and charges:
